UNION NEWS

Lake Union votes new language for employment document

On Nov. 13, Lake Union executive committee members voted new language on sexuality and gender language as it relates to employment. A more in-depth policy statement is scheduled for release in spring 2020, but in the meantime, this statement was necessary so job applicants could have full knowledge about the policy and can inquire further if they have questions.

Spirit of collaboration propels successful pop-up health clinic

The Seventh-day Adventist churches of central Wisconsin, in conjunction with the Wisconsin Conference and the Marshfield Clinic, held a very successful Adventist Community Health Initiative (ACHI) on October 26 in the Marshfield High School Gymnasium. For the first time, more dentists volunteered than there were chairs available. How'd that happen?

Young adults venture out to serve community during fall break

While some students decided to use the fall break to catch up on assignments, visit family members, and enjoy the freedom from classes, a group of young missionaries traveled to Kalamazoo to further the mission of spreading God's love. These young adults are volunteers of the Greater Youth Movement program (GYM), an outreach initiative launched from the Harbor of Hope Church. READ MORE

Protecting Our Reputation - Mitigating Reputational Risk

Think about an iconic brand name. A brand that is well-known, has lasted a long time, and is well-liked. For brands like these, the name of the brand holds a monetary value separate from the value of the tangible assets owned by the brand's company. The company has a reputation tied to their brand name that, if damaged, could result in financial loss to that company and their name being valued less than it was before. The same is true for our church. Click here for full story.

How to Safely Prepare for Your Grandchild's visit

You may have thought your heart couldn't grow any fuller the day you became a parent. And then your baby had a baby — and suddenly, becoming a grandparent means feeling a whole new kind of love. To be a grandparent means you get to experience the perks of parenting all over again, only this time, you can pass the little ones back to mom and dad when you're ready. Read more here.
