THIS WEEK

AROUND THE UNION

'How do we not waste this crisis?'

The questions came from Bolingbrook residents who stood in disbelief that a church would rent a taco truck to provide free food to their community.

Desire to help drives Kenosha pastor to feed construction workers

Any time a resident or motorist approaches a road construction crew, it tends to not be for delivery of good news.

But when Kenosha Pastor George Andrews III made the short walk from his house on 30th Avenue to the crews from A.W. Oakes & Son in Racine doing work in the 5100 block there Monday, he had something completely different in mind.
