Next month, September, marks one full year of this weekly newsletter! You've stuck with us as we worked out the kinks, but we're by no means resting on our laurels. We're still relatively new, and that means we're still getting to know you, our audience. We're open to your feedback. If you really like something we're doing on here — or really don't — or have ideas that can help shape our newsletter, let us know. We're all ears. . . # NEWS FROM AROUND THE UNION

Community comes to aid of fire victims

Andrews University student Jeremy Barrett planned to fully move into the Berrien Springs apartment he shared with his sister Sunday morning.

That changed Saturday night when he learned that his apartment was among 12 destroyed by fire at Park Manor Apartments in Berrien Springs. READ MORE

New edition of the Andrews Study Bible set for release

On Thursday, September 5, the University will release for sale the long-awaited New International Version (NIV) of the landmark Andrews Study Bible. In addition, nearly 700 new students at Andrews will receive a complimentary copy from the University, continuing a tradition that began in 2011 but now takes place for the first time with the NIV. ## Detroit church hosts ice cream social 17 consecutive years

Detroit Burns Church held its 17th Annual Ice Cream Fellowship (ICF) on July 20 on the eastside of Detroit.

Attendance has typically ranged between 200 to 300 people, mainly from the community. This year's event was attended by 223 people, including 119 children and teens, with more than 100 guests from the community.

Mission outpost established in the Amazon

Our riverboat glided through the steamy night on the inky black waters of the Rio Negro in Amazonia, Brazil. Sleeping in hammocks slung across the upper deck or housed in tiny cabins below, 36 Americans and Brazilians set off on this jungle adventure on July 4, with mission in mind. Ten of us were from the Lake Union.

Barna Research presents: Communication Is Key in Periods of Pastoral Transition
Leadership transitions within a church are inevitable. Some transitions go off without a hitch—most often those that are planned ahead—while others see the passing of the baton taking longer than expected or producing poor outcomes. While all churches should prepare for leadership transitions and the unforeseen events that may slow the process down, there is one thing that everyone in the church should continue to do as they navigate the shift together: communicate. # WEEK IN PICTURES

Debra Davis-Moody, Community Services director for Lake Region Conference was recognized by Michigan governor, Gretchen Whitmer. Davis-Moody and her team organized and led the State Donation Warehouse # 2, managing volunteers, inventorying water donations from various agencies, helping Fairhaven and Eternal Life Ministries churches coordinate water distribution and mobile distribution, attending meetings on the state, federal and local level. She is pictured here (left to right) with Lake Region Prison Ministry Leader, Dolby Knott; Lake Region Public Affairs and Religious Liberty Director, Edward Woods III; and Hyde Park Pastor, Marlon Gregory.

EVENTS AND RESOURCES

The Back-to-School Checklist

If you have gone shopping at a department store in late summer, you have seen them.

The checklists: sheets of recommended necessities by grade, the latest and greatest items school-age children need before returning to the classroom. These checklists are designed to make the back-to-school process easier for parents and students.

Adventist Risk Management, Inc. (ARM) wants to make back-to-school preparations a little easier for you, the teacher and school administrator.
