Andrews University Observes National Native American Heritage Month

Andrews University is privileged to have over 50 students who identify as Native American. Additionally, the Berrien Springs campus resides on land once taken from the local Pokagon Band of the Potawatomi tribe. These simultaneously meaningful and difficult truths affirm the importance of recognizing and engaging with the Native American communities within the larger Andrews community.

This Week in Adventist History

However, dropping temperatures don't necessarily bring lowered spirits, as evidenced by these smiling Broadview Academy students as they enjoyed a snowy Illinois day in the 1950s. These girls may have read and been inspired by the words of M.L. Rice, Lake Union Conference President, who published a holiday address in the December 25, 1951, issue of the Lake Union Herald. He wrote, 'There can be no real Christmas without Christ. True, we may take a holiday from work, exchange some presents, eat a big dinner, and call it Christmas. Many will do this, but those who do only this miss the entire spirit of Christmas. To truly recognize Christmas is to recognize Christ as the Son of God.'
